Grand Knights Report, by William Shane, Grand Knight

We will have nominations and elections of council officers and trustees as well for trustees of the Massillon Knights foundation, at our regular meeting on June 7. And don't forget our End of the Fraternal Year Party on June 28. Beginning at 6:30.

Chaplain's Report, by Msgr James Kolp

On Wednesday, May 25th I turned up to help with our Dinner for the Poor served each week at our Council Dining Room. Charlene invited me to put on an apron and go from table to table offering bread and butter. I could not believe the number of men and women volunteers who helped with the meal. The people were treated as though they were in a top notch restaurant. I want to congratulate the volunteers from the bottom of my heart. They are the greatest.

My helping to serve took me back to the earliest days of our Wednesday lunch for the poor. Ralph Snyder and many others did a bang-up job. One Wednesday we served 550 people and we did not run out of food.

Jesus summed it all up when He said, "Whatever you do for one of these least brothers of Mine, you did it for Me."

Isabella Guild Report, by Mary Jo Meyer, President

It was a beautiful day in May when the Isabella's met. Prayers were offered for all living and deceased members of our guild.

Our lunch consisted of a pork cutlet, red potatoes, mixed vegetables and a salad. This was all topped off with an ice cream sundae.

Door prizes were given at the top of the meeting. Winners were Mary Seifert, Judy Keefer, and Charlotte Gibbs.

Cards were played. Winners in 500 were Jeannine Morrison first, Ann Radich second, Florence DeWitt third, and fourth place was won by Linda Weller. In euchre the winners were first Barb Seeds, second place Naomi Murphy and third place was won by Elaine Williams.

Our next meeting will be held on June 9th.
