Knights of Columbus

June, 2019

Grand Knight's Report, by Robert Pittinger, Grand Knight

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the outgoing officers for their hard work and dedication to our council. All officers involved did an outstanding job. I know our future officers will do as well. If you are interested in becoming an officer of our council please attend our Regular Council meeting on June 11th at 7:00 pm. We will have elections of Officers at that time. Installation of Officers (District-wide) will be July 16th, please be there by 6:30 pm; installation is at 7:00 pm.

Congratulations to Anthony Lieberman for making his 1st Degree on May 8, 2019. We look forward to youthful enthusiasm in our council.

We really need to encourage new members to join our council and I know we can accomplish that goal. If you know someone who would make a good candidate, maybe a friend or family member or someone who you see in church, just ask them to join us.

I am proud to tell you that at our recent Ohio Knights of Columbus State Convention, Matthew Hersher, a member of St Joseph parish in Massillon, was recognized as the Ohio State Council Youth of the Year. The award was presented at the convention banquet on Saturday night, May 18 at the Kalahari Resort and Convention Center in Sandusky, Ohio. Also, Josh Edwards received the Bluecoat of the Year award from the Youngstown Diocese. Congratulations to both Matthew Hersher and Josh Edwards.

Thanks to all that worked at St. Mary's on our round table project. Our next scheduled round table project at St. Mary's is tentatively planned for June 22nd.

We will also have a Highway Clean up on July 20th. Volunteers are needed so please contact Matt Meyer 330-284-9365.

An early reminder to mark August 4th on your calendar. This will be our Council Family picnic from noon to 3. All council members of 554 and Navarre Council 5582, Columbian Ladies Guild, Social Members, and their families and our member's widows are welcome.

Also, please pray the rosary daily for each and every one of us, our families, our nation and the world.

Chaplain's Report, by Msgr. James Kolp, Chaplain

When I was in High School I was a member of the Columbian Squires in the Canton Council. I left for the seminary toward the end of my senior year. We were in the Diocese of Cleveland. When I was a young seminarian, we received news that the Holy Father had established the Diocese of Youngstown. This meant a new bishop and a new cathedral. If you look at the word STAMP and add a C you have all the six counties of our diocese. The Knights of Columbus have been very active in all seventy-five years of our diocese. You are cordially invited to the Closing Mass of our seventy-fifth anniversary on Sunday, June 9th. We will also be celebrating the 40th anniversary of Bishop Murry. Lots to thank God for so many blessings and also lots of challenges as we begin the 76th year of our diocese. I urge you to involve yourself in every way you can. The address of St. Columba Cathedral is 154 West Wood Street in Youngstown. It begins at 4:00 P.M. Happy Anniversary!

Foundation Report, By Paul Lambert, President

Hoping all is well with everyone and that you have been able to get outside. Be sure to check in on family, friends and neighbors and make sure everyone is okay.

I wanted to thank Mike Johnson and my wife, Elaine, for helping to chip the branches of the fallen trees at the K. It only took a couple of hours in between rain drops. We are still looking for help on the walking path and if you would like to help please call and leave your name and number because we never know when we will be out there because of the weather. I will call you and let you know when we will be there. If you can make it great if not that day maybe another. Any amount of time is greatly appreciated. If you can only work in the evenings or weekends, we can make sure we have crews available.

Please support our club during the summer time. It really is our slow period. Thank you to the golfers for coming out and support the club.

Complex Manager's Report, By Mary Ann Cowley, Complex Manager

Hope everyone is enjoying their spring/summer so far. A few dry days would be nice! Don't forget to support your club in these summer months. It's very slow and we need all the business we can get right now.

During our slow weeks on Saturdays. we will NOT open the kitchen on the following Saturdays listed below. So, feel free if you want to come in and bring your favorite fast food or snacks you can. The Kitchen will be closed the following Saturdays, June 1, 8, 22 ... July 6, 13, 20, 27. The Clubroom will actually be closed Saturday, JULY 6th! We will up-date at a later date for August. Thanks for all your support.

Bingo continues every Monday, doors opening at 4 p.m., bingo starts at 7 p.m.

Bloodmobile - July 31st - at our complex.

Don't forget you can pick up a hard copy of this bulletin in our clubroom.

Have a great summer!

Faithful Navigator Report, *By Matt Meyer, Faithful Navigator

We had 4 Sir Knights in regalia march in the Memorial Day parade as pictured. We also had some squires march with us to add to the numbers. It was perfect weather and the program at city hall afterwards was very enjoyable. It would be nice if we had more march in this parade. The deadline for using the old regalia is coming up soon. All 4th degree members should consider getting the new uniform. We have a $100 reimbursement going right now for anyone who gets one. Greg Frank and I also talked about a small fundraiser to help defray the costs to members wanting to get the new uniform. Future fallouts are at risk due to not many Sir Knights having the new uniform. No matter your opinion on the uniform, it is time to move forward and continue to be there for our bishop and to show respect to our country as patriots. Our June meeting is our Past Faithful Navigators night. We will be having a steak dinner for $5/person. No reservations needed, just plan to attend as this is our normal ladies' night. Elections will be held at this meeting. We have nominations for the next year but are still accepting any new nominations if you are interested in becoming an officer. I hope everyone has a safe summer!

OHIO YOUTH OF THE YEAR 2018-2019

MATTHEW HERSHER

Youngstown Diocese, Massillon Council # 554

This year's Youth of the Year exemplifies a commitment to our shared Catholic faith, academic excellence, an active social and extra-curricular life, and service to the community.

This youth is active with St. Joseph's Ignite youth ministry group and was elected a youth representative to the St. Joseph parish council. At Mass, our youth of the year serves as lector, Extraordinary Eucharistic minister, and plays trumpet with the music ministry. His faith was deepened at the Steubenville conference and the diocesan youth conference. He shares that faith each week as an aide for CCD and during vacation bible school. He is so well respected by his peers, he served as a confirmation sponsor this past April.

As a senior at Washington High School, our youth of the year is active in band, swing band, choir, French club, National Honor Society, the tennis team, and school musicals. With a 4.3 GPA, our youth of the year is 4th in his class and has been accepted to Ohio State University next year.

In the community, our youth of the year helps with the Salvation Army's red kettle campaign, serves meals in the St. Joseph soup kitchen, and assists with Love the Children. One of only two high school students appointed by the mayor to the Massillon's Kindness Campaign, our youth of the year worked with other city leaders to plan and lead events to encourage kindness, spread joy, and invite participation in the community.

Congratulations, Matthew!

Council 554 Round Table Initiative: Divine Mercy Chaplet Recitation

Council 554 members is conducting the Divine Mercy Chaplet recitation once a month in our local parishes. Our Lord said through his apparitions to St. Faustina: "It pleases me to grant everything souls ask of me by saying the chaplet." The chaplet should be said during the 3:00 hour, for all of us who need His divine mercy.

The schedule is as follows:

St. Joseph The chaplet recitation at St. Joseph Parish is scheduled on the third Friday of the month at 3:00 PM, in the church following the Blessed Sacrament Exposition which runs from 9:00 AM thru 3:00 PM.

St. Mary The chaplet recitation at St. Mary Parish is scheduled on the first Tuesday of the month, at 3:30 PM, in the chapel in the parish center on 1st Street. The recitation of the chaplet will be said prior to the regular Tuesday Mass for St. Dymphna at 4:00 PM.

St. Barbara The chaplet recitation at St. Barbara Parish is scheduled on the fourth Tuesday of the month, 3:00 PM, in the church.

All are welcome at all of the scheduled recitations. To learn more about the Divine Mercy Chaplet, visit...

<https://www.thedivinemercy.org/message/devotions/praythechaplet.php>

And SPECIAL THANKS to Bob Kring who created our Divine Mercy Chaplet pamphlets for St. Barbara and St. Mary parishes.

St Barbara Church

The K of C Massillon Council 554 along with Stark County K of C Members, St. Barbara Parish with Parishioners from neighboring Catholic Churches along with Pro – Life Christians conducted their first yearly public prayer vigil held every Sunday during Lent focused on the 40 Days for Life outside the Canton Planned Parenthood center. The Rosary was recited every week and concluded on Palm Sunday with the Stations of the Cross. In belief that human life is sacred because from its beginning it involves the creative action of God and it remains forever in a special relationship with the Creator, who is its sole end. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can under any circumstance claim for himself the right directly to destroy an innocent human being; we asked for repentance to those who work there and those who patronize the abortion center. A heartfelt thanks to all that participated during the 6 Sundays and look forward to next year.

'No greater love' — Denver Catholics remember Kendrick Castillo, who died in STEM school shooting

by Mary Rezac, Catholic News Agency (CNA)

Denver, Colo., May 9, 2019 / 05:00 pm (CNA).- When Sara Haynes heard about the shooting at STEM High School in Highlands Ranch, Colorado on Tuesday, she prayed. A Catholic school teacher in Denver until just recently, she knew some of her former students were now high schoolers at STEM.

When Haynes learned that Kendrick Castillo, a former student of hers, was the lone casualty in the May 7 shooting, she cried immediately.

Then she reached out to the other students who had been in the same 7th and 8th grade math and religion classes at Notre Dame Catholic School as Castillo. Details of Kendrick's death were not yet public, but her students guessed Castillo had died trying to protect others, Haynes said.

“I went to my students and we were all just sharing together. And I said: ‘Do you guys think that he blocked the shooter?’ And they said: ‘Yeah.’ I mean, it just wasn't a shock to us” that he would give his life for others, Haynes said.

On Wednesday, Kendrick's father, John Castillo, confirmed to the Denver Post what he had learned from witnesses and the coroner: that Kendrick died while charging the shooter to save his friends.

"It doesn't surprise me," John Castillo told the Denver Post. "He cared enough about people that he would do something like that, even though it's against my better judgment."

"I wish he had gone and hid," Castillo added, "but that's not his character. His character is about protecting people, helping people."

Kendrick's friends and fellow students share the same sentiment, Haynes said.

"Every time I see a new kid that is in shock or crying, I ask - 'But are you surprised?' And they say 'No, I'm not surprised at all. I'm just mad because I didn't want him to have to do it. But of course, he was going to do it.'"

Haynes said she remembers Kendrick as an unfailingly kind student, who cared deeply about everyone, who tried hard in school, and who wasn't afraid to have fun and be goofy.

"Kendrick is probably one of the funniest people I've ever known," Haynes said. "He's really quirky and sweet. And quiet, but not really. He's one of those kids that he knows the appropriate time to be quiet, and then when it's the appropriate time for him to just be a total dweeb, he'll be a total dweeb."

He was always joyful, Haynes said, and funny - as her trove of goofy videos of Kendrick prove, she said. The only time when he was not joyful was at parent-teacher conferences, Haynes recalled. Kendrick tried hard in school, and he loved technology and excelled at science - but math was harder for him, she said.

"He would get so serious at parent-teacher conferences because he struggled academically and...most middle school kids put blame on other people, but he just always took the responsibility so seriously that he would cry," she recalled.

"And we would tell him, 'You don't need to cry! We just want you to turn in your work.' And he'd be like, 'I'm so sorry.' He really was such a deep thinker even if he didn't look like it, because he was so jolly. He had this joy that shone through."

Sr. Loretta Gerk was another teacher who knew Kendrick while he was a student at Notre Dame Catholic School - she taught him in physical education classes, from Kindergarten through eighth grade.

"He was the neatest kid," Gerk told CNA. "He was so kind and gentle, but yet, he was all boy too, you know what I mean?"

Gerk said that she would sometimes worry about the kind and gentle students, because they could be prone to teasing. But no one ever teased or made fun of Kendrick - he was just too likeable, she said.

"Kids are sometimes cruel to each other," she said. "But the kids weren't mean to him. You couldn't be mean to him."

"If any little kids were crying or something, he would go talk to them. He would reach out to them. He would notice those things," Gerk said.

Gerk said when she found out Kendrick had died in the shooting, her heart and her stomach hurt. When she found out he had died trying to rush the shooter, she thought: “That doesn’t surprise me at all.”

A hunter who loved his elk hunting trips with his father, Kendrick’s familiarity with gun safety may have given him additional courage when he rushed the shooter, Gerk said.

Not only was Kendrick kind in school, but he was also a very helpful and active person at church, Gerk recalled. He would often tag along with his dad to Knights of Columbus events, Gerk said. He would usher at Mass with his dad on Saturday nights, and help serve breakfast with the Knights of Columbus during Catholic Schools week.

“Kendrick would be in the kitchen, and he had a blue apron that said ‘Knights of Columbus.’ Kendrick was in there with his dad, helping,” she said.

Cece Bedard knew Kendrick because her dad, too, was in the Knights of Columbus. In a message to CNA, Bedard said that Kendrick “loved his faith and he really loved to serve others.”

It was not just that Kendrick did one heroic act, Bedard said, but “he lived the life of a hero, always helping others to the point where I’m not quite sure what he did for himself.”

He loved his Catholic faith, Bedard said, and once told her when they were young that although he couldn’t picture himself being a priest, he thought “the way of life (of a priest) was simply beautiful.”

“He truly was a living saint,” Bedard said.

Deacon Chuck Parker knew Kendrick at Notre Dame parish, where he remembers him as an altar server and a young usher, and a favorite greeter at the doors of the church.

“If anybody could exemplify a minister of hospitality it was Kendrick,” Parker said. “Even at such a young age, he was always very kind and compassionate, very engaging with people...people loved coming in and being greeted by Kendrick.”

“You hear a lot of people say that he was really a good kid,” Parker said. “And he was really a good kid, he just really was.”

Parker, like many others, said he “wasn’t surprised” when he heard how Kendrick died, “because he was such a loving kid.”

“I was thinking about John’s Gospel where it says that there’s no greater love than to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. And that was Kendrick,” he said.

In religion class, Haynes said Kendrick was pensive, hungry for the faith, and always eager to play Jesus whenever they acted out stories from the Bible.

“He always wanted to be Jesus,” Haynes said. In a video from her class that she posted to Facebook, Kendrick acts out the part of Jesus, going to search for his apostles or to comfort a suffering person, blessing them with the sign of the cross and inviting them to join him.

“I have this amazing scene where he found the two apostles and they’re all kneeling in front of the camera...Kendrick is peering at the camera and then he does the sign of the cross at everyone watching. And he was so serious in it,” Haynes said.

While religion can sometimes be a difficult subject to teach junior high kids, Haynes said that whole class “was really on a spiritual journey that I just got to witness. They really wanted the faith. And they weren't afraid to ask the tough questions and to be stuck with some of the answers.”

Haynes credits Kendrick’s parents for raising him to be a kind and faithful young man, and she urged everyone to continue to pray for them for the rest of their lives.

Now a parent herself, Hayes said that while she hopes she never has to experience the tragedy of losing a child, she wants her two boys to grow up to be “just like Kendrick.”

Because of her faith and because of how he died, Haynes said she believes Kendrick “went straight to heaven.”

“I don't think there's any doubt.”

Editor’s Note: You may have heard about Kendrick’s death in the news. This is the “rest of the story”. May God grant him eternal rest!
